

AITAR DIGITAL GAZETTE PUBLIC NOTICE

NUMBER 17/2026

OPENING OF ENROLMENT – AITAR TRIBUNAL TRAINING PROGRAMME

The Chief Adjudicator and President of Independent Tribunals announces the opening of enrolment for the AITAR Tribunal Training Programme – a structured, constitutionally grounded qualification framework for independent tribunal members under Article 1(3) of the Constitution of Kenya.

Programme overview

The Programme comprises four Tiers, covering general dispute resolution (AITAR), succession (AISTAR), and electoral dispute resolution (AIETAR). It is delivered online, self-paced, with workbook modules, training videos, assessments, and a remote marking system.

Who may enrol

Lawyers, quantity surveyors, accountants, engineers, and other qualified professionals. Existing AITAR Roster members may enrol in specialist modules (AISTAR, AIETAR) without completing full Tiers.

Key features

- Deferred Payment Scheme (DPS) – pay 15% of future appointment earnings; no upfront fee for qualifying applicants.
- Authorised Representative Programme (ARP) – formal qualification for representatives appearing before AITAR, AISTAR, and AIETAR Tribunals.
- Direct entry pathway for experienced practitioners (portfolio assessment under TPD 15/2026).

Fees and enrolment

Full fee schedule (Kenya residents: ADR price + 16% VAT; international: zero-rated) and enrolment form are available at aluochier.co.ke/shop.html.

Constitutional status

Independent tribunal members exercise delegated sovereign authority under the same Article 1(3) of the Constitution as Parliament, the executive, and the Judiciary.

Contact

Aluochier Dispute Resolution – info@aluochier.co.ke

Issued by: Isaac Aluochier

Chief Adjudicator and President of Independent Tribunals

Dated: 26th May, 2026
